Ecosystems Notes

Put this in your science folder for notes, Do Not Turn In!

Ecosystems

are

Living and Nonliving things in the habitat

Examples of ecosystems include

Forest, Lake, Desert, Stream

All ecosystems include these two types of factors

Abiotic: Non-Living Things — and — Biotic: Living Things

examples of which include

Animals, plants, humans, fungi, bacteria

examples of which include

Water, mountains, sky, sun clouds, rocks, temperature, heat